

From: Reed, Eric
To: 'microsoft.atr(a)usdoj.gov'
Date: 1/27/02 10:23pm
Subject: Microsoft settlement

I do not believe that the "Anti-Trust" laws in this country are in the "public good". I think they only prop up companies that can not compete in the market, and, in so doing, prop up prices which would otherwise be lowered by a more pure form of competition.

I also think that asking the public what is in there own best interests will yield you nothing but 250 million different best interests.

Eric Reed